

Announcing 2017 Mentorship Contest

---

Women Helping Women

"Sometimes we all simply need a helping hand... an experienced and trusted mentor to help us find our way."

~Kathy Leodler

Kathy Leodler is a former FBI Special Agent and currently CEO of Rampart Group LLC, Seattle, Washington. Kathy grew up in a small town in Alabama and comes from humble beginnings. Never in her lifetime did she ever imagine becoming an FBI Special Agent until the FBI invited her to give it a try. With support from friends and family, Kathy decided to "Go for it!"

After almost 2 years of testing, interviewing and waiting for acceptance, in September 1984, Kathy received her appointment letter to the FBI Academy, and the rest is history - A career that led her from FBI Special Agent to leading other Special Agents and managing some of the FBI's most complex investigations, to FBI SWAT commander in charge of the execution of high-risk arrests and search warrants. Throughout her career, Kathy led teams in hundreds of successful arrests, indictments and convictions of international organized crime groups, terrorist organizations, drug cartels, violent street gangs, kidnappers, bank robbers, and fugitives.
